Lucky In Love?

The Orange County Clerk-Recorder Department is feeling the love for lucky couples wanting to roll the dice for “7-7-7” by tying the knot on July 7, 2007.

Couples around the country are choosing the numerically perfect date of 7/7/7 as their ideal wedding date. In fact, the Association for Wedding Professionals International expects a 20% increase in weddings on this date nationwide. Legend holds that it's the luckiest day of the century, which only comes once every hundred years.

The lucky day falls on a Saturday, when county offices normally are closed. However, the Orange County Clerk-Recorder's Marriage License Division will open its doors from 7:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., with the first ceremony taking place at 7:00, the second at 7:07 and the others all taking place at times ending with a lucky 7!

Ceremonies will be offered at the scenic Old County Courthouse in downtown Santa Ana, 211 W. Santa Ana Blvd. in the downtown civic center area. Outside wedding ceremonies can be arranged.

Orange County Clerk-Recorder Tom Daly said the Saturday ceremonies reinforce his office's commitment to efficiency, public service and a touch of whimsy. “Happy couples in Orange County will be able to celebrate on this special Saturday,” Daly said. “And we guarantee it'll be easier to remember your anniversary.”

Space is limited, so couples should reserve space for their marriage ceremony in advance. To make reservations, or for more information, please call (714) 834-2588, or visit our website at www.ocrecorder.com.
